SHERYL LYNDE & RICK HOFFMAN FOUNDATION TO FINISH TRAINING

Hello Everyone

JULY 2011 NEWS

The Triple Crown Novice only Buckle Series comes to an end. Robin Moxley from Bishop takes the win for the series of 3 races. On the first day of the clinic and race when all participants were shown the buckle up for grabs to the winner of all 3 races - it did not enter into Robin's thoughts that it would be her and her mare taking the win We were thrilled for her and what a great person to represent our first Buckle Series.

Prior to each race we held a clinic and we worked on each riders areas that needed improvement and the riders that finished the buckle Series have grown so incredibly in skills and confidence - it was amazing to see the difference.

Even our Photographer for the series - Andrea Kraus of Chaos Photos commented on the change she had witnessed - particularly Laura Roberts riding her mustang "Liberty" thru the cowboy curtain. Andrea is the official photographer for EXCA, and does an excellent job. For more incredible photos of the race visit her website www.chaosgraphics.smugmug.com. At our first clinic Liberty was having issues going near the curtain - by the last race Laura calmly backed Liberty thru the curtain with ease and control. WAY TO GO - ALL OF YOU!

Our Level 4 Judge - John Black - has judged EXCA races nationally and thought our group of Novice riders were the best. They worked hard during the clinics, during the races - between races - all their efforts have paid off.

Paula Bellesi on Whiz Kid entered the last race only and won all 3 go's making a clean sweep and
